BEFORE MADONNA. BEFORE MARILYN. There was Josephine.

LYNN WHITFIELD LOUIS GOSSETT, JR.

RUBEN BLADES DAVID DUKES

Sixty years before Madonna, there lived a legendary entertainer who shocked the world with her sensual song-and-dance performances and liberated lifestyle: Josephine Baker. Lynn Whitfield stars in "La Belle Josephine's" thrilling, rags-to-riches true story. The daughter of a black washerwoman from St. Louis, Baker lived a life full of music. She conquered the stages of Europe in the roaring '20s, fought with the French Resistance in WWII and became the richest black woman in the world. Ruben Blades plays the manager who helped Baker achieve international stardom; Craig T. Nelson is columnist Walter Winchell, who labeled her a communist. (AS,AL,N) 2:14.
